

What gifts have you been given to share with your family, your friends, your meeting community?

What gifts have you been given to share with your family, your friends, your meeting community?

“We become true individuals only in community, in relation to God and neighbor. In community we discover our gifts and our call.”

- James Fowler (1940–2015)

I wonder what gifts you have discovered in your meeting?

I wonder what gifts you have been given to share in your meeting?

I wonder what characteristics, gifts, and leadings we discover as we connect across Quarters, Collaboratives, other communities?

I wonder what characteristics, gifts, and leadings we discover in the yearly meeting as a body?
